IN HEAVEN: Rob Vautin in his showroom with some of his classic cars.

Rob's is a classic love

ROB Vautin says his new Alderley showroom is 1600 sq m of boys' tovs.

The Samford resident is the co-owner of Monaco Motors and has opened the doors to his dream business where car enthusiasts can come to share his passion for classic and prestige cars.

The Farrington St showroom currently sports envyinducing cars including ferraris, porsches and jaguars from $10,000 to $150,000. He also runs a workshop for prestige, classic and performance cars as well as modern cars.

Mr Vautin joined his father's small mechanical workshop after completing his apprenticeship and grew up around classic cars. "When I was a boy these were the cars I looked up to.

Now that I'm a bit older, they have nostalgia.'

Mr Vautin said it was hard to blend into the crowd driving a prestige car but he loved to see the passion such cars ignited on the faces of passer-bys.

"When I took my Lotus esprit home I was at a Ferny Hills servo . . . when I pulled up and got out of the car all these kids swarmed up.'
