THE GO BETWEEN BRIDGE

IT'S ALL PART OF COUNCIL'S PLAN

Connecting northern and western suburbs to South Brisbane and West End.
Opens mid 2010.

Soon there will be a new cross-river connection providing better access to some of Brisbane's most popular education, recreation and cultural precincts and relieving traffic congestion around the CBD.

The Go Between Bridge, featuring four tolled vehicle lanes as well as pedestrian and cyclist paths, can be accessed from the Inner City Bypass/Hale Street and from a right turn on Coronation Drive and will connect to Montague Road, Merivale and Cordelia streets in South Brisbane.

As a key component of Lord Mayor Campbell Newman's TransApex plan, the Go Between Bridge will help ensure Brisbane is a well designed, accessible and connected city now and into the future.

Its name was inspired by the legendary Brisbane band The Go Betweens and was chosen through a public submission and voting process.

To find out more please visit www.gobetweenbridge.com.au or call Council on 3403 8888.
