SALES PUSH: Chris Georgiou at drivethrough window of his store in Wynnum.

Drive buy at Georgiou's

GEORGIU'S General Store is a store with a real emphasis on convenience - it even has a drive-through.

Although the store has been in the Georgiou family for 53 years, current owner Chris Georgiou said not much had changed in five decades.

"I've been working here since I was a kid - back in the old days there wasn't any self-service," he said. "We used to run around and grab things for all the customers.

"We're just doing the same thing with a drive-through."

Mr Georgiou, 46, said the drive-through was just one of the ways the store had branched out recently.

"We've got a coffee machine now and we sell some unusual things like scooter wheels and skateboard decks," he said.

"We know most of our customers personally so we try and find out what they want and get it in the shop."

The drive-through has been a hit with local mothers and people who use mobility scooters.
